Village of New Maryland

Proclamation

Loyalist Day

WHEREAS on May 18th, 1783, men and women who had maintained their allegiance to the Crown during the American War of Independence began to arrive and to settle in large numbers in what is now New Brunswick; and

WHEREAS the constancy, fortitude, tenacity of purpose, and sacrificial sense of public duty exemplified by those Loyalists and their descendants have been interwoven in the very fabric of this province that they loved; and

WHEREAS May 18th has been popularly known as Loyalist Day for many years and has been celebrated for close to two centuries;

NOW THEREFORE I, Mayor Judy Wilson-Shee, do hereby proclaim that it is fitting and proper to recognize that the 18th day of May was Loyalist Day;

In Witness Whereof, I have set my hand and caused the seal of the Village of New Maryland to be affixed hereto this 21st day of May 2025.
